Still, there is no pity for the poor baseball players, who are bought and sold like so many tubs of butter.

Perhaps the champion idiot and criminal combined is the person who shouts "Fire!" in a crowded theater.

What if the beef prices are going up? The doctors tell us that we have been eating too much of it, anyway.

A New York young woman killed another with a hatpin, but the death was due to carrying concealed liquids.

A Newark fan dreamed he was sliding for home—he bumped his head on the floor hard, and found he was home.

A French scientist declares that the body rests more quickly after fast work, but even this is no excuse for the joy rider.

Too many babies are killed by their pushing out loose window screens. It seems like a foolish waste of perfectly good babies.

A Kentucky minister has figured out that heaven is a structure 792,000 stories high. Let us hope that it has adequate elevator service.

Science, it is asserted, has solved the mystery of the Sphinx, but hardly anybody can solve the mystery of a boiled egg until after breaking it.

A Chicago pastor says: "Wait until you are burning with an idea before putting pen to paper." Yes, and then call out the fire department instead.

The bobolinks are flying toward the rice fields of Louisiana. This may mean an early fall and again it may simply mean that the birds are hungry.

Laundymen prefer Pittsburg as the scene of their convention in 1912. There are reasons why laundymen should have an affection for Pittsburg.

"Is a chicken an animal?" must be decided by a judge at Port Chester, N. Y. The half-dollar table d'hôte chicken is suspected of being a mineral.

In due time there will be angry farmers watching with shotguns to keep some transcontinental flier from alighting in their cornfields with his aeroplane.

A Rochester girl refused a young man twelve times because he smoked cigarettes, but not more than one girl in twelve would refuse a man once for that reason.

One nice thing about an aeroplane race is that you can see the racers occasionally even if a tall man or a fat woman happens to be directly in front of you.

The Frenchman who has succeeded in "photographing thought" has perhaps pointed the way to getting the truth from witnesses who find it convenient to forget.

A college professor comes to the front to announce that vacations are dangerous. If he got among a crowd of enraged vacationers he would find them even more so.

A man in Atlantic City has advertised that he is lost. Why should he go to that trouble, when according to some ministers, most of the people there are in the same condition?

Up in Wisconsin a man dived into the water and caught a 22-pound muskellunge. Down in Texas they are killing mountain lions with jackknives. We need a floss.

There has been a revolution in Ecuador, but we have not been able to find out whether it was necessary or just indulged in because the revolutionists felt the need of practice.

Several cases have occurred of eye-eyesight threatened or lost by the inordinately long hatpin point. Unless women realize themselves that this is a constant and serious menace and restrict the length of the sharp pin, some steps will have to be taken to protect the general public from this dangerous nuisance.

A Chicago man has been bequeathed a million dollars on condition that he will not drink or gamble until he is sixty. Pretty tough, to have to start such a pace at that time of life.

This has been a summer of intense heat and violent storms. Rarely has lightning struck so often with such dire results, and heavy downpours of rain have played havoc with crops in many parts of the country. Losses to farmers have been enormous, and in many ways the season has been abnormal.

TRAIN KILLS 13 IN HAY-RIDING PARTY

THREE MORE MAY DIE FROM INJURIES IN COLLISION AT GRADE CROSSING.

BILLBOARD HIDES VIEW

Six Bodies Cling to Pilot of Engine; Two Catapulted Through Shanty—Eight Are Seriously Injured.

Neenah, Wis.—Sixteen deaths probably will result from a mile-minute passenger train at Neenah, crashing into a party of thirty-one merry young people loaded upon a hayrack.

A big billboard along the railway tracks obscured the view from the locomotive, as well as from the wagon.

Twelve persons on the hayrack were instantly killed, one has since died and three out of eight others injured are believed to be fatally hurt. Nine of the thirty-one persons aboard the wagon escaped without a scratch and so did both horses. Nobody on the train suffered except from a momentary severe jar.

Collision at Grade Crossing.

The collision occurred on the Chicago & Northwestern railway at the Commercial street crossing here. Train No. 121, northbound, whirled through the wagon load of people at a 45-degree angle. This was owing to the fact that the highway crossing is diagonal.

The victims were returning from the Peter Hanson farm, where they had gone to attend the celebration of a wedding anniversary. All but two, who were Chicago men, were residents of Menasha.

The dead are: James Cheslock, John Brill, Chicago; Mabel Finn, Gustav Finn, John Hart, Steven Lisek, Dominick Omniechinski, Mabel Renz, Joseph Sienko, John Schiedick, Frank Siskardt, Joseph Schiedick, Isabelle Schuchowski.

The injured: Philip Mott, Chicago; Benjamin Dunbowski, Antone Kurinski, Myron Olson, Anna Sodalski, John Suchowski, Amanda Syring, Herman Syring.

Bodies Overturn Shanty.

Armless, legless and headless bodies covered the right-of-way as the train, nine coaches in length, was brought to a stop 800 feet from the scene of the crash. Several of the bodies were so badly mutilated that identification was possible only by fragments of clothing.

Six of the victims, all dead, were discovered on the engine pilot, where they lay until removed by the train crew and passengers.

Two others of the persons killed were hurled into a farmer's shanty with such force as to overturn the structure. One of this pair was Miss Finn, who was projected through one of the side walls of the house and was still alive when removed. She died a few hours later.

Another of the victims killed was thrown high over a barn fifty feet from the railway right-of-way.

They were lined upon deck and preparations were made to remove them to shore, but it was found there was no danger, and the great company was kept on the ship while it was pulled off the mud bank and then conveyed back to Southampton. The liner was bound for New York. Besides the 1,200 passengers, it carried a crew of 1,000 and the largest cargo ever taken on a liner. There were 20 millionaires aboard.

The passengers were taken off the Olympic in tugs and lighters when the vessel arrived here, and were hurried to hotels.

Brands as False Report He Is About to Retire Under Pressure and Issues Defi.

CANADA REJECTS U.S. TRADE PACT

LAURIER GOVERNMENT OVER THROWN AND RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT BEATEN.

CONSERVATIVES HAVE WON

Seven Men in Premier's Ministry Are Defeated in Their Districts. Although Leader Himself Is Returned—Laurier Overthrown.

Ottawa, Ontario.—The Laurier government and reciprocity are beaten decisively. The opposition has completely turned the tables on Laurier, whose majority in the house of commons at dissolution was 48. The combined opposition majority, with figures incomplete, is 37. The figures in the twelfth parliament will probably be 131 Conservatives and Nationalists, and 81 Liberals.

The Nationalists cut a poor figure electing only two, R. L. Borden, the next prime minister, will, therefore, have a big majority of his own kind of straight Conservatives back of him. Toronto went Conservative with a majority such as have never been witnessed before, even in that Conservative stronghold.

A remarkable feature of the election is that W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, and Hon. William Patterson, minister of customs, the two men who put through the reciprocity agreement, are both beaten, and other cabinet ministers who are defeated include Hon. George Graham, minister of railways, Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia; Mackenzie King, minister of labor; and Jacques Bureau, solicitor general, almost a clean sweep of the cabinet. William Templeman, minister of inland revenue, has been defeated in Victoria, B. C.

The Conservatives of Nova Scotia divided the province even on the question of reciprocity, electing nine out of the eighteen.

Prince Edward Island elects three Conservatives and one Liberal, just reversing the previous standing. In New Brunswick the Liberals have elected seven candidates to six by the Conservatives.

SECRET OF PASTOR'S SUCCESS

Writer Is of Opinion That Proper Manner Has Much to Do With the Matter.

The reason why a good many ministers of fair ability are out of a job is because they do not want to visit, because they are looking for a church that will fit their own notions rather than trying to fit themselves to the needs of a church. It is true that a good many men do not know how to call, they do not know how to behave when they get into a house, they do not like it and will shrink if every chance they get. Yet calling is the secret of success in almost every parish today—not the same kind of calling in all places, but some kind in every place—and if our seminaries had wisdom they would fit their students to do their work in the best way, in the only way in which it can be done in the country at least. Give one year to sermon-making and three years to making gentlemen of the truest sense of that word. Thus send out men who can adapt themselves to the needs of the place where they are called, and can thus serve human souls, who, being as they are, want to be better. The problem of the country church is to be solved by the pastor rather than the preacher—Universalist Leader.

Red Cross Christmas Seals.

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis will this year for the first time be national agent for the American Red Cross. In handling the sale of Red Cross seals, a new national office has been opened in Washington, and an initial order has been placed for 50,000,000 seals, although it is expected that double that number will be sold. The charge to local agents for the seals will be 12 1/2 per cent of the gross proceeds, the national agent furnishing the seals and advertising material, and taking back all unsold seals at the end of the season. Postmaster General Hitchcock has approved of the design of the seal. Owing to the fact that many people last year used Red Cross seals for postage, the post office department has given orders that letters or packages bearing seals on the face will not be carried through the mails.

Masculine Anxiety.

Teddy's mother had been taken suddenly ill one morning while he was at school. On his return, he was admitted to his mother's room for a few minutes, and found his Aunt Alicia sitting by the bed.

"No, Teddy," said she, "mother has been very ill, and must not talk."

"O, my! I'm sorry, mother," gasped Teddy.

Mother smiled at him lovingly.

Master Teddy seated himself on a large chair directly opposite, and, after wriggling anxiously around for a minute or two, delivered himself of the speech.

"Mother dear—now don't try to speak—but if you mean yes, nod your head—this way—and if you mean no shake your head—this way. Have you seen my baseball bat?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Buying Legislators in Jobs.

One day, writes Sloane Gordon in Success Magazine, a former member of the Ohio house, displayed, inadvertently, a large roll of bills in the New House lobby. A fellow member gazed in awe at the show of wealth.

"I just sold a drove of hogs," explained the former member rather hastily and confusedly.

The observing one was thoughtful. He did not reply for the half-minute usually essential to the full-measured beat of his mental processes. And then—

"Yess," he drawled, "and I'll bet I'm one of them haws."

Cause of the Excitement.

"The sons of the rich were all enthusiastically following some one down the street."

"What's up?" someone asked.
